

Del Webb Home Warranty Coverage & Emergency Warranty Service Procedure

Dear Homeowner,

Congratulations on the purchase of your Del Webb home! Your home offers you warranty protection in four different phases during the first ten years you own your home.

Your warranty coverage includes:

- One Year Coverage – The builder warrants the construction of the home will conform to the tolerances for materials and workmanship, as defined in the Performance Standards of the Home Protection Plan*, for a period of one year after the closing date.
- Two Year Coverage – The builder warrants the workability of the plumbing, electrical, heating, ventilating, air conditioning and other mechanical systems, as defined in the Performance Standards of the Home Protection Plan*, for a period of two years after the closing date.
- Five Year Coverage – The builder warrants against certain types of water infiltration and internal leaks, as specifically defined in the Performance Standards of the Home Protection Plan*, for a period of five years after the closing date.
- Ten Year Coverage – The builder warrants the construction of the home will conform to the tolerances set forth in the Structural Elements Performance Standards of the Home Protection Plan*, for a period of ten years after the closing date.

Please reference your Home Protection Plan for full detailed descriptions of available warranty coverage.*

Furthermore, many of the products used in your home may have additional warranty coverage offered by the manufacturer. Because this coverage is not part of the Del Webb Home Protection Plan, once your warranty coverage through Del Webb expires, you must contact the manufacturer directly to inquire about additional warranty coverage or to request service.

The following list of phone numbers may be used for qualified emergency warranty situations. The following subcontractors can be contacted 24 hours a day, 7 days a week in the event of a qualifying emergency situation:

Electric Neal Electric – (512)-835-5300 Monday-Friday, 8am – 5pm
